

Mrs. May Watson of Huntsville died at her home Wednesday, December 31 at the age of 81 years. She leaves a son, Ed, of Huntsville. The burial was at Columbia.

Three divorce suits have been filed to the next term of the circuit court. Those asking divorces are Mrs. Emma Lockridge and Lilly Payton of Moberly and Mrs. Lucy Durnil of Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Overman of Moberly are the parents of a daughter born last week.

Frank Kavanaugh, formerly linotype operator at Moberly who went to Mexico recently to help settle the scrap was chased out and is back as far as Poplar Bluff. He enumerates damages, and ends by saying "I'll with Mexico," a sentiment which is voiced by everyone else.

Brakeman Harold Butterly of the Wabash has arrived with his bride from their marriage trip.

Prof. Gray and the Eadington sister's, accompanied by a chorus of fifty voices gave a concert at the high school in Huntsville for the benefit of the library and laboratory fund.

Ed Love of Hannibal and Miss Mabel Aldridge of near Mt. Airy were married at the home of the brides parents Monday morning of last week.

The marriage of Joe Frazier and Miss Nadine Musick the youngest daughter of Will Musick of Darksville took place at the bride's home Sunday December 23. The groom is a farmer.

Uriel L. Ehrhard and Miss Minnie L. Hickens of Prairie Hill secured a marriage license Wednesday of last week and were married later in the same week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Green celebrated the former's 32nd birthday at their bungalow at Radium Springs December 28. A big dinner was attended by quite a few invited guests and relatives.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
This remedy has no superior for coughs and colds. It is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It always cures. For sale by all dealers.

Fined $50,000

The Missouri Supreme court rapped the Central Coal and Coke Co. of Kansas City which C. Keith, well known here, was the head. The company was fined $50,000 under the anti-trust law and was ordered to discontinue business. It was reported later however that the court would probably modify the forfeiture of charter decree so as to let the firm continue business under certain restrictions, upon payment of the fine. This is a ruling made in a similar case involving the Standard Oil Co.

THIS IS CERTAIN

The Proof Keyesville Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time. Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results.

Grateful endorsements should prove undoubtedly the merits of this remedy. Years ago people right in this locality testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimony. They said that time has completed the test.

Mrs. J. G. Brock, 311 Hagood St., Moberly, Mo., says: "For several years I had spells of backache and a throbbing pain just over my hips. The kidney secretions bothered me and I had a dull, tired feeling. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved these troubles. The action of my kidneys was regulated and my system was toned up."

A LASTING EFFECT.
On October 26, 1912, Mrs. Brock said: "I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. The cure they made has been permanent."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Brock had. Foster-McClellan Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CARROLL

The People's Bank of DeWitt decided its corn contest the first prizes for white and yellow corn going to W. S. Mann and George Storm.

William Schofield died at the hospital for the insane at St. Joseph December 26. The remains were brought to DeWitt for interment. Schofield was 35 years of age.

Campbell R. Grider aged 26 years, died of tuberculosis at the home of his father James Grider in DeWitt, December 26. He was buried from the Christian church Saturday afternoon, Rev. Bush in charge of the service.

Paul Atherton and Miss Grace Bricken were married at the Baptist parsonage Dec. 24, Rev. O. L. Wood officiating. The bride is a daughter of Frank Bricken of near Wakenda.

J. N. Stonebraker formerly half owner of the Carrollton Republican-Record bought the interest of S. A. Clark and now is sole owner, continuing as editor and business manager as heretofore.

Recorder Beams of this county ran out of marriage licenses and had to telegraph Keytesville for a supply to tide over the deficit.

The hunters' licenses issued last year in this county number 224. 20 licenses were issued the first day of this year.

Thomas Sappington, aged 5 years died at the family home Dec. 24. Burial at Oak Hill.

Ernest Smart and Miss Mabel Grimes of Combs township were married Christmas day at the home of the bride's father Sanford Grimes.

The case of the state vs. Appleber and Benson was taken on a change of venue from the court of Justice Goodson at Bogard to Justice Kinsey at Coloma. The case is for assault on a school teacher, Miss Mary Faris, teacher of the Braden school.

Mrs. Mary Humphrey died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martha Humphrey Dec. 25. She was aged 84 years. Seven children survive. The burial was from the home with interment in Coloma cemetery.

James Stanley who was severely injured in a runaway last summer died of cerebral hemorrhage Dec. 29.

Marriage licenses:—Chester L. McGinnis, Orrick, Velma Boyar, Excelsior Springs; H. W. Shaffer, Minnie Christman, Carrollton; Jas. W. Miller, Virginia, Ill.; Freda M. Perreton, Bogard; Eimor Sturgeon, Butler, Mo.; Nelle V. Irick, Hale; Wm. R. Appleberry, Annie E. Clark, Bogard; Chas. E. Burton, Ludlow, Anna E. Martin, Norborne.

Hike to Breakfast

The high school boys in some towns have an early morning breakfast fad that has spread to a number of places. The boys send a couple of their number to a camping ground, usually some nook about a mile from town, about 4 a. m. with chicken and potatoes to start preparations for the breakfast. Later, the other come out and assist in the final preparations and the "eats." After a while in the woods, they come back to town. It means early hours, a cool walk and several other things and it is hardly expected to reach the proportion of a fad here.

C. O. Moore of Little York, Ill. was at the K. C. market last week and bought a few cows. He says he is going to raise his own cattle this year. He farms land worth $200 per acre. He has a farm of 180 acres of which 60 acres is good pasture. He has heard it said that cattle cannot be raised and fed on $200 land at a profit. He feels that in raising his own stock he can disprove this statement.

HOWARD

John H. Cazzell of Glasgow celebrated his 49th. birthday December 24. Among his guests was Mrs. Fannie Turner of Keytesville.

David J. Briggs died at his home in North Church street, Fayette Dec. 24. He had been an invalid for a year and was formerly county treasurer, a newspaper man and member of the city council. He was 59 years old. Burial was in the city cemetery.

John Warford and Miss Ozella Dougherty of Fayette surprised their friends by going to Fayette and getting married Wednesday. They will live in the country. The bride formerly was a school teacher.

The contribution of Fayette thus far toward the endowment fund of Central College is $21,767.50. The expected contribution is $25,000 which makes the present sum a little more than $3,000 short.

A. B. Long has sold the Fayette laundry to James Hale of Columbia. Mr. Long moves to Columbia to reside.

The case of Sumpter vs. Towels was brought from Randolph county to Howard on a change of venue. The suit involves the sum of $180 which Sumpter claims due for 12 hogs Towels sold him.

William A. Hughes has been appointed the new postmaster at Glasgow.

Sixteen test oil well are to be driven on the Dr. Chinn tract of 177 acres of land near Rocheport. The oil bee has buzzed long in Howard county bonnets and now someone is going to see about it.

Interest On City Money

The city of Chillicothe wants the banks to pay interest on the city money deposited there. Heretofore the banks have refused to bid for the city money although they pay interest on county money deposited. It is rumored that if the banks do not pay interest the council will pass an ordinance empowering the city to loan the money on real estate at twice the value of the loan. The banks pay 2-1/2 per cent. on daily balances of county money.

Piles Can be Cured

By using Pileine, thousands of pile sufferers have been absolutely cured. It is a home treatment, taken internally, and will not interfere with your daily occupation. My booklet, "Treatment of Piles," mailed free upon request. Address, Pileine Co., Dept. M., Danville, Illinois.

Death at Clifton

Mr. Tom Mayo one of the oldest citizens of Clifton Hill died Friday night. He had many friends who will regret to learn of his death.

LINN

James Kirby a farmer living a half mile from Bucklin was married December 31 to Mrs. Carter of near Ethel, Mo. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom. The guests were a few friends and relatives.

F. M. Turley of Meadville, aged 32, was found dead in his home December 29. His wife and children were away to spend a day or two and he failed to appear at his barber shop as usual. Acute stomach trouble caused his death according to the coroner.

Earl Chapman and Miss Alma Fordyce of the vicinity of Eversville were united in marriage at the residence of the groom's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Johns at Linneus, Christmas Eve. The groom farms.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bowyer at their home December 27 celebrated their fiftieth or golden wedding anniversary.

Walter R. Schroeder of Paton, Iowa and Miss Elsie May Casteel of Laclede were married Dec. 28 at the Commercial hotel, Linneus. Rev. Judge Pratt performing the ceremony.

There has been some trouble at Marceline over arrangements desired by the Bell Telephone Co. with reference to the 24 lines near Marceline which connected with the central office. It is possible that the independent lines may arrange for a new central office.

G. W. Early of the First National Bank, Marceline fell in his bathtub Christmas day and fractured a rib.

Humphrey Padgett was arrested at Marceline last week accused of violating the new white slave law. He was bound over to the circuit court with bonds of $1000.

Sam Leahley an employ of the Santa Fe at Marceline and Miss Leona Morris were married at Carrollton. They will make their home in Marceline.

LIVINGSTON

Miss Flora Fordyce and Henry J. Frazier of Chillicothe were married in Kansas City Wednesday, Dec. 31.

Charles H. Rickey of Clarence, Mo. sold a S. C. White Leghorn cock at the Chillicothe poultry show for $100 and J. Brackey of Chillicothe sold of the same breed of birds, a cock, for $50. The show just closed is said to have shown the best birds ever exhibited there.

Four more couples were licensed the past year, 1913 than in 1912. 270 couples were licensed to marry in this county the past year.

The Knights of Columbus initiated a big class into their order last Sunday at Chillicothe.

Doc Miller last week received a fine Jersey bull which he bought from Oliver of St. Joseph.

Mrs. John Winfrey, colored, a respected negro woman died last Wednesday at Chillicothe.

Lisle Caldwell age 15 and Raymond Johnson, age 19, eloped from their homes near Osgood last week and got as far as Milan where they were detained until parents arrived. they are still single.

Lock Smoke Houses

Farmers are preparing to padlock their smoke houses when the time come in the Spring to smoke their meats. One man, S. E. McMullin of Howard county, says that he expects to do it this year for the first time. He says the h. c. of l. has become so heavy that he will not tempt people too far by allowing free access to his meats. He feels it would not be a good christian spirit to tempt his brother too far.

MACON

The merchants of Macon state that the Christmas trade was larger than they anticipated this year.

Alice Henderson, colored, received word that her son "Sonny Boy" Henderson had been killed at Milan, Tuesday of last week in a scrap.

A farewell service was held at the Christian church at Macon Thursday of last week for Rev. Alfred Munyon and family who are leaving Macon for other parts.

The warehouse of W. H. Warfield at Bloomington was destroyed by fire at 3 A. M. Tuesday last week. There was little insurance on the stock valued at $1000. The building was owned by Isaiah Lewis.

The Union Bank of Adair has filed suit against H. H. Whitsel et al. on a note for $1850. The defendants are officials of the Consolidated Stahl Coal Co.

T. B. Williams and Miss Mary A. Dodson were married by Justice Greer at the bride's home in S. Macon December 30.

Miss Beulah Whitcomb and Bert Pierce both of near Anabel were married at 6 P. M. December 26 at the bride's home, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Whitcomb of Round Grove township.

The dries say they are not much alarmed over the promised election contest resulting from the recent voting of the city of Macon in the dry column.

William Hardesty of Bevier left his personal property to his wife in his will, also the income from all realty during her life. At her death the children divide the realty.

Miss Bertha Boedeker of Sunnyside and Moses Fuhr of Readlin, Ia., were married on Christmas day at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Lehr performing the ceremony.

Marriage Licenses: T. B. Williams, and Mary Ann Dodson Mrecon; C. H. Canady, Windsor and Flo Hall Litchfield, Ill.; J. O. Kerley, Bucklin and Jennie Carter, Ethel; Moses Fuhr, Fairbank, Ia., and Bertha Boedeker, Macon; Raleigh Dowell, and Pensie Leathers, College Mound; Lee Marshall Callao, and Lillian Jackson, College Mound; Arthur F. Singleton and Myrtle G. Smith Bevier; Richard Sutton and Bertha Johnson Callao; Hugh Switzer, Jacksonville and Hattie Phillips Anabel; Homer Head and Hallie Baker Anabel; Lloyd L. Stickler and Sarah E. Riley Atlanta.

Stock Receipts Greater

The Kansas City market received more stock this year than it did a year ago and shipped more out. The heavier receipts were in cattle and hogs, the other receipts fell a little short, but the heavy over-receipts in these departments brought a total of receipts above those of a year ago.

Express Company Hit

It is said that the Adam Express Co. is getting ready to retrench its forces, economize and to cut its annual dividend of 12 per cent. A loss of 25 per cent in business with the 15 per cent cut necessary to meet the parcel post accommodations are said to be the cause.

Naylor-Shawk

The marriage of Roy H. Naylor and Miss Georgia A. Shawk occurred Christmas day at the home of the bride's parents, east of Prairie Hill, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. M. Ramsey. The groom is a farmer and they will reside in the future on a farm.

Hunters' licenses expired Wednesday. They date from January 1. Better renew.

The union meeting of the three leading Protestant churches at Slater has closed with a reported list of 350 confessions of religion. Up to the end of last week 238 persons had united with the three churches.

The first of last week ten cars of cattle, 2 of hogs, 1 of sheep, 2 of mules and 2 cars of mixed stock were shipped from Slater to the city markets. Four carloads of feeders also were brought in by Warner & Ellyson and Ham & Ellyson.

Miss Vera Dulaney gave a chafing dish party to a number of friends at her home last week in Slater.

Martin Lenz shipped 800 rabbits to the city markets last week. The crop this year seems to be a record breaker in this county.

Wolves continue their depredations in the vicinity of Slater. they recently killed over a dozen shoats for Dr. Reid and a large wolf was seen by Mrs. Zeta Haynie near her place.

Hog cholera manifested itself in the herd of W. N. Beard west of Slater but the fat hogs were saved by moving them away before they contracted the disease.

Harry Reed shipped a carload of corn recently to his brother, Richard, at Mexico. The corn was sold recently at the rate of a cent per lb. the corn having husks on.

Marriage Licenses:—Walter Akeman and Myrtle Leonard Sweet Springs; Joseph M. King and Mildred E. Legg Marshall; Albert L. Mikels, Shackelford and Ann Withers, Marshall; E. W. Tanner, Malta Bend and Emily Dyer Marshall; Quinton Breeding, Arena Bend and Ethel Bentley, Marshall; Edward W. Thomas Higginsville and Elsie Van Dyke, Macon; Payton Murdoch and Mollie Johnson Slater; Charles W. Garner and Leona Whitlock, Marshall; Hardin T. Sandridge, Shackelford and Minnie E. Thomas, Marshall; William F. Blosser and Margaret Klinger, Marshall; Clarence Saylor and Alice Edwards Malta Bend; Herman Arndt, Waverly and Frances Biding Lexington; Amos Brumble and Clara Campbell Slater.

His Stomach Troubles Over

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.

READ THE COURIER

This Is No Joke

If There Are Any Signs Don't wait another Day
OUR FREE TRIAL OFFER
Continue yourself at our expense that you can quickly promote a luxuriant growth of hair and keep it naturally abundant, soft and silky—eradicate dandruff, thoroughly cleanse the hair and scalp and keep it healthy with

SWAIN'S Hair Tonic

At All Dealers in $1.00 Bottles
SWAIN MEDICINE CO., Inc.,
Kansas City, Mo.

—FOR SALE BY—

H. M. SIGLOOH